Dear Loyal Todd Friends and Fans ,

For the past 40 years of Todd's musical journey, he has always taken a different approach to the whole "Music Business" thing. Obviously he has never been in it for the fame or the money , as most of You know. Some of that has included allowing other people to profit off of His image .

At a certain point in everyone's lives, and especially in these unsettled times, the focus turns to the best way to provide for our families and make sure they have what they need, keep the roof overhead, the head above water and cupboards full.

In a nutshell and without getting too dramatic here .. Todd and His family have decided that they need to put an end to all the other selling of goods, clothing and otherwise, that bear His image, His album covers, etc.

As of Sept. 1st the only Official and Legal selling of Todd items will be from Toddstore.com. Todd and the Toddstore Staff want to make sure to offer You the best, most unique Todd merchandise that lives up to his high standards.

We greatly appreciate Your understanding and support !!
Sincerely,

The Toddstore Staff
